Fueling success at IndianOil & beyond

Ms Kanchan Basak, who joined IndianOil in 1993, displayed remarkable dedication during her transition from being a sports player to becoming a part of the corporation. She attributes her successful journey to the support and motivation provided by her colleagues at IndianOil.

In 2005, she was re-designated as a mainstreamed player at the LPG Kolkata Area Office. Throughout her career, she has worked in challenging locations, making valuable contributions to IndianOil. In 2016, she took on the role of Sports Coordinator for the Eastern Region. Currently, Ms Kanchan Basak serves as Chief Manager in Human Resources at the Western Region Office."

I am very lucky to join this great organization! IndianOil has nurtured my aspirations, enabling me to achieve success in both Table Tennis and my professional career. The corporation has installed in me the confidence to fulfill my responsibilities with sincerity and dedication, free from any apprehensions. I am profoundly grateful to my senior colleagues for their invaluable guidance, my supportive peers who stood by me in both official and personal matters, and my juniors for their cooperation.
