Fuelling success at IndianOil & beyond

Mr Mandar Phadke's journey began as a Tenure Based Sportsman in 1993, swiftly ascending to Grade A Officer status by 1996. From 2010 to 2019, he excelled in varied roles encompassing Transport, Hotel Accommodation, and protocol duties for VVIPs, showcasing adaptability and versatility. His stint at Grease Plant Vashi from March 2019 to October 2021 underscored his managerial prowess and operational finesse. Presently, he leads strategic initiatives in the Sports section at the Marketing Head Office, channeling his passion to drive impactful endeavors.

My journey with IndianOil has been nothing short of transformative. I'm deeply humbled by the unparalleled opportunities, insightful experiences & unwavering support both on and off the cricket pitch, that fostered my personal & professional growth. I strongly resonate with the organization's steadfast commitment to national welfare and environmental stewardship. 'Nation First' isn't merely a slogan; it's a guiding principle that I proudly embody. With a sense of purpose and profound gratitude, I stride forward, knowing that with IndianOil by my side, the possibilities are limitless!
