Fuelling success at IndianOil & beyond

After a distinguished cricket career of 18 years, Mr Syed Abbas Ali transitioned seamlessly into IndianOil's mainstream role in 2015. He leveraged his extensive experience, discipline, and leadership skills developed on field to lead teams in the corporate world. His coaching tenure honed his ability to strategize, mentor, and manage teams, providing a solid foundation for his corporate role. Today, he applies the same passion and commitment to his corporate career, excelling in leadership and team management, and inspiring others with his journey from sports star to corporate professional.

I am grateful to IndianOil for its pivotal role in my journey of realising both my professional and personal goals and aspirations. Being a part of the IndianOil Cricket team provided me with invaluable opportunities to hone my skills, compete at high levels, and grow as a cricketer and as an individual. The unwavering support and encouragement from IndianOil allowed me to balance my sporting ambitions with a stable career, providing me with the resources and flexibility needed to excel in both arenas. The company's commitment to fostering talent and its nurturing environment were instrumental in my development, enabling me to transition smoothly from a celebrated cricket career to a rewarding corporate role. IndianOil's belief in me has been a cornerstone of my success, and I carry forward the lessons of teamwork, resilience, and excellence into every aspect of my life.
