MEET OUR SPORTS STAR

Mr Jaseel Parvez Ismail
DGM (HR), Kerala State Office

One of the finest Badminton
Doubles players

Imagine a time when Kerala was under the leadership of Mr E K Nayanar, A R Rahman composed ad jingles, Rahul Dravid had yet to debut in cricket, and Aishwarya Rai aspired to be an architect. It was during this era that the badminton sensation, Mr Jaseel Parvez Ismail, first donned the Indian colors.

Today, Mr Jaseel stands as one of India's greatest doubles players, boasting an impressive record of five National Badminton Championships doubles titles, alongside celebrated partners like George Thomas, Vijaydeep Singh, and Vincent Lobo. He also clinched two National mixed-doubles titles with Manjusha Kanwar. Notably, Mr Jaseel, in partnership with V Diju, secured the doubles title at the Indian Asian Satellite 2004 in Hyderabad.

In his own words, "Being a regular member of the Indian teams at the Thomas Cup and the World Championships is a source of enduring pride." His unwavering self-confidence and commitment to representing the nation have propelled him to greatness.
