Fuelling success at IndianOil & beyond

Mr Manu Attri's journey from the badminton court to the corporate arena is one of seamless transition and continued success. In 2015, Mr Manu joined IndianOil, where his career continued to flourish. Balancing his roles as an elite athlete and a professional, he exemplified determination and resilience. In 2024, Mr Manu transitioned fully into a corporate role as Manager, HR, at the Telangana & Andhra Pradesh State Office. Despite stepping away from the court, Mr Manu's connection to the sport remained strong, representing IndianOil in prestigious tournaments like the PSPB and the Central Zone Badminton Tournament, among others.

"When I first started playing badminton, there was always a lingering thought in the back of my mind: What if I don't make it to the top in my sport? What will my future be? This uncertainty sometimes held me back from performing at my best. However, since joining IndianOil, my mindset has completely changed. Now, every time I step onto the court, I feel a tremendous sense of support from IndianOil Corporation Limited. My company has always stood by me during tough times, supported me in achieving my dreams, and has been the first to congratulate me when I've won medals... In this enriching journey, IndianOil has been more than just a workplace; it has been a nurturing environment that has propelled both my professional and personal growth. I look forward to continuing this journey with a deep sense of gratitude and purpose, proudly representing both IndianOil and the spirit of Indian sportsmanship."
