Mr Wasim Jaffer' illustrious career reflects a remarkable blend of sporting prowess and corporate excellence at IndianOil. Emerging as a formidable talent, he transitioned seamlessly from a star on the cricket pitch to spearheading technical roles, exemplifying proficiency both within and beyond the sporting arena.

Glorious moments in Sports

- Became the first batsman to score 11,000+ runs in his Ranji Trophy career.
- The most capped player in the history of the tournament, surpassing the record of Devendra Bundela (145).
- Made a triple century in his first-class second match and scored 459 runs partnering with Sulakshan Kulkarni.
- Scored five Test centuries including two double-centuries against the teams of Pakistan, South Africa, Bangladesh, West Indies and England.

Fuelling success at IndianOil & beyond

Wasim Jaffer, a former Indian cricketer with a distinguished career of over 18 years, has etched his name in the annals of Cricket history. Being a right-handed opening batsman, his illustrious career includes highest run-scorer in Ranji Trophy, becoming the first batsman to score 11,000 runs in the Ranji (2018) and becoming the most capped player in Ranji trophy history with his 146th match appearance. These accomplishments have earned him the title, 'The Ranji Giant'.

In 2015, he transitioned seamlessly to mainstream roles, leveraging his extensive experience, discipline, and leadership skills developed on the field. His coaching tenure honed his ability to strategize, mentor, and manage teams, providing a solid foundation for his corporate tenure.

I have been very privileged and lucky to have joined IOCL as early as when I was 18 years old. IndianOil has supported me immensely and I can't thank them enough for their continuous support especially in my initial years when I needed financial help to pursue my dreams of playing for the Indian team. It has been more than 25 years for me in this organization and I would not want to be anywhere else given another opportunity.
